Two-Minute Answers to Your Questions about the Catholic ... As Catholics we believe that we are saved by God's grace alone. We can do nothing, apart from God's grace, to receive the free gift of salvation. We also believe, however, that we have to respond to God's grace. Protestants believe that, too. However, many Protestants believe that the only response necessary is an act of faith; whereas, Catholics believe a response of faith and works is ... Why We're Catholic (Book) - Catholic Answers, Inc. Why We're Catholic assembles the clearest, friendliest, most helpful answers that Trent learned to give to all these people and more. Beginning with how we can know reality and ending with our hope of eternal life, it's the perfect way to help skeptics and seekers (or Catholics who want to firm up their faith) understand the evidence that bolsters our belief—and brings us joy. Why Believe? | Catholic Answers The daunting work of defining and analyzing faith has been described, with perhaps a dose of knowing humor, as the “cross of theologians.” As with hope and love, the virtue of faith can appear initially rather simple to define, often as “belief in God.”
